

Saturday night, November 17th 2012, the EASTERN SHORE BASEBALL FOUNDATION will hold its annual Hall of Fame Induction Banquet at the Delmar, Maryland VFW. A social hour will take place from 5-6 p.m. and the buffet meal will be served at 6 p.m. All persons interested in attending must purchase tickets at $20 per guest by calling:

Kenny Green at 410-742-6096

Charlie Silcott at 302-629-3078

Geoff Smoot at 410-546-0880

All reservations must be made before November 9th, 2012.

This year's inductees include:

Stanley Bozman, star of the local Central Shore League

Curtis Brock, who runs the successful baseball program at Del Tech

Terence Carr, California Angels number one draft pick and Maryland Gatorade player of the year

Deane Deshon, longtime baseball coach at Salisbury University

Ephrain N. Hall, Sr., Somerset County stalwart

Jerry W. McCready, Umpire

Jack C. Morgan, Central Shore league and University of Maryland star

John Patrick Murphy, Sussex County journalist and long time supporter of the ESBF

John Besson "Brewery Jack" Taylor, Major leaguer (deceased)

The guest speaker for this year's banquet is Delmarva Shorebirds general manager, Chris Bitters. Also a presentation will be made demonstrating the new internet web site that will allow anyone to access information about the museum and Eastern Shore baseball history. Additionally, a brief update will be given from the Board of Directors about the activities of the Foundation.