In 2012, Duquette's leadership and timely acquisitions paved the way for the Orioles to claim a spot in the postseason, their first since 1997. Two prime examples were his acquisitions of Nate McLouth and Miguel Gonzalez, two unheralded players that filled important roles in the regular season and postseason.

Duquette, who was hired by the Orioles in November of 2011, has over two decades of experience in baseball operations at the Major League level, including a combined ten seasons as general manager with the Montreal Expos and Boston Red Sox. The Red Sox reached the postseason three times (1995, 1998 & 1999) under the leadership of Duquette. His acquisitions of Pedro Martinez, Derek Lowe, Manny Ramirez, Johnny Damon and others helped the Red Sox win the world series title in 2004, their first in 86 years.

The silent auction will take place from approximately 5-7pm. The Shorebirds have obtained items from major professional sports teams such as the Baltimore Orioles, Pittsburgh Steelers, Chicago Cubs, Baltimore Ravens and more. Proceeds from the silent auction will benefit the United Way of the Lower Eastern Shore.
