Ella Muir Walker

SALISBURY — Ella Muir Walker, 81, of Salisbury died Thursday, Oct. 27, 2011, at Salisbury Center: Genesis ElderCare nursing home. Born in Oriole, she was the daughter of the late Van Muir Sr. and Reba Bozman Muir.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church and the Eastern Star in Salisbury and a board member of the Eastern Shore Baseball Hall of Fame. She was a volunteer for the Christian Shelter in Salisbury for many years. She worked at Sears for 25 years as a department manager. After retirement, she worked at Boscov's in gift wrapping during the holiday season. Ella was known as "Ms. Baseball" for her love of baseball and the Baltimore Orioles. She was friends with many of the "older" players and attended many of the Oriole spring training camps in Florida.

She is survived by her daughter, Trudy Walker Tawes and her husband, Brian, of Salisbury; a granddaughter, Kelly Tawes of Charleston, S.C.; a sister, Sarah White of Princess Anne; four brothers, Van Muir Jr. and his wife, Ginger, of Princess Anne, Allen Muir and his wife, Cindy, of Princess Anne, Harry Muir and his wife, Roni, of Denton and Edward "Ned" Muir and his wife, Mildred, of Princess Anne.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Martin Guy Walker, in 1990; and a son, Martin Edward Walker in 2008.

A funeral service will be held Monday at 11a.m. at Trinity United Methodist Church, located at 112 High St. in Salisbury, with a visitation one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow in Parsons Cemetery in Salisbury. The Rev. William Kniceley will officiate.

Memorial contributions can be made to Eastern Shore Baseball Hall of Fame Scholarship Fund, 6400 Hobbs Road, Salisbury, Md. 21804; and/or the Christian Shelter, 334 Barclay St., Salisbury, Md. 21804.

Arrangements are in the care of Holloway Funeral Home PA at 501 Snow Hill Road in Salisbury. To send condolences to the family, please visit www.hollowayfh.com.
